Dear Mr. Chairman:

In response to your sympathetic reaction to our problems in coping with the requirements of the Amendments to the Freedom of Information Bill, I sent you on 13 March 1978 some facts and thoughts we have on the matter.

In furtherance of this matter a thought occurs to me that you might be interested in receiving a copy of an "FOIPA Newsletter" we have recently produced. A reading of this newsletter will give you a further understanding of the nature and background of this problem.

We remain appreciative of your interest in this matter.
